Kookaburra

M. Sinclair
(1895–1988)

This lively song is about the Kookaburra, an Australian bird well known for its 'laughing' call. The song is very effective when played in ensemble as a 2-bar round.

= staccato: short and detached

To achieve a staccato effect, quickly damp the string/s with the finger/s of the right hand, or rapidly release the pressure of the left-hand finger/s so as to mute the sound.
